RE: Wrisley grievance, requested materials

Attached is the supplemental report for internal affairs investigation # 93-01. This document was prepared following the initial step three meeting held on March 18th of this year. In this document, the first sixteen pages discuss the methods of the investigation as well as the findings of the investigators. This report, along with the original report dated January 16th, 1992 will form the documents used in coming to the decision to terminate Mr. Wrisley.

As you will see, the investigators believed that the story told by the victim, Ms. Williams is the more likely of the two to be the truth. The evidence relied on in reaching this conclusion include a polygraph exam taken by Ms. Williams, the telephone records for the day, and Wrisley's duty notebooks (the notebook entries changed dramatically in style during the Williams episode as compared to entries for the previous year). A summary of this and other discrepancies is noted in the charts beginning on page 11 of the report.

I will make my staff available to answer any questions you may have, or to respond to challenges made by Mr. Wrisley. Please advise me if you need any further information.

After you have reviewed the supplemental report, please contact Pam Kingsley, at extension 2181, to arrange for her to pick this report up.
